Organisational context

With over 51,000 volunteers, we are one of the largest volunteer-based emergency service organisations in the world. Every day, we make decisions that affect the lives and property of over four million Victorians.

As a trusted authority in fire safety, community connection and volunteering, our strategic goals are as follows:

- 1. We put the community at the centre of everything we do
- 2. We deliver programs and service that make a positive difference
- 3. We provide a great place to volunteer and work
- 4. We are a progressive emergency services

The CFA Strategy and Outcomes Framework 2020-2030 sets a strong plan for how we will approach our service delivery over the next ten years: building on our strengths and capabilities, recognising the breadth of our work which goes well beyond fire response, and reinforcing our commitment to being a sustainable and progressive volunteer emergency service that puts the community at the centre of everything we do.

Diversity and Inclusion

Act in a manner which demonstrates a commitment to CFA Diversity and Inclusion policies, procedures and regulations.

Child Safety

At CFA, we are committed to creating a child safe environment that promotes the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people with whom we have contact. CFA has a zero tolerance to all forms of child abuse and harm and will act to protect children and young people by effectively responding to allegations and complaints, including reporting matters to relevant authorities. Children within CFA are supported to express their culture and enjoy their cultural rights. CFA has a zero tolerance of racism and expects staff will act on any incidents of racism. There is an expectation that all staff have, and maintain, a commitment to child safety, equity and inclusion, and cultural safety.

Position Purpose

The Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the Country Fire Authority is appointed by and accountable to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) under section 43 of the Financial Management Act 1994. This is a critical role in CFA.

The CFO reports to the Group General Manager Strategic Services, works closely with the CEO and is a member of the Executive. The CFO is CFA's primary advisor on strategic financial matters and works with all key executives and the Board. As the Chief Procurement Officer, the CFO is also responsible for developing and implementing sound procurement and contract management practices across CFA to ensure value and compliance with government policy.

The CFO is formally responsible to the CEO for the effective management of core financial processes and for strategic financial and investment management. The incumbent is also responsible to the CEO, the Board and the Minister for certain Standing Directions of the Minister for Finance issued under the Financial Management Act 1994.

The CFO leads and manages a distributed Finance and Procurement Department in the delivery of integrated financial and business management services to enable CFA to achieve its objectives while ensuring a high standard of financial governance. This includes setting and overseeing appropriate arrangements for the sound management of donations from the community and the financial processes of over 1,200 CFA Brigades.
